About PeakFlow

PeakFlow is a Shopify public app built to help merchants track progress, performance, and growth without relying on spreadsheets or scattered tools.

It centralizes store analytics, advertising metrics, fulfillment data, and revenue insights into one clear dashboard making it easier for teams to monitor goals, collaborate efficiently, and make data-driven decisions in real time.

Designed for scalability, PeakFlow supports role-based access for merchants, teams, and coaches while keeping reporting transparent, automated, and always up to date.
